Part 2. The Kvening Star. Pages 11-14.

The Evening Star is the only afternoon paper in Washington that receives ciated Press. It is therefore the only one in which the reader can find the complete news of the world, directly transmitted by telegraph, up to the moment of going to

WASHINGTON, D. C., FRIDAY, JULY 20, 1900-FOURTEEN PAGES.

GALLANT SQUADRON

Fighters of the Third Cavalry Going to China.

BUSTLING SCENES AT FORT MYER

Packing and Pathos Mark the Eve of Departure.

INTERESTING DETAILS

Every day is moving day at Fort Myer There is bustle and animation o every side, officers and men have their minds and hands full, for Squadron 3 of the famous Fighting 3d Cavalry is packing up preparatory to going as far as steam can carry it by land and water to the orient which now means China. A visitor sees all this on the surface and admires the discipline and rapidity with which affairs are conducted. But under it is a pathetic undercurrent, running swift with sorrow and sadness. A moving day in a household is ot such a mournful thing, because while few pleasant surroundings are lost, the family go to their new abode together and gether make their new environment as pleasant perhaps as the old. But moving day at an army post is vasily different, particularly so when, as in the case of particularly so when, as in the case of Squadrom 3, it has been precipitated without warning. It means more to the brave men and their dear ones than mere house leaving. It means separation as audien as it may be eternal. It means that while the wives and families of the officers are left behind, they will really have no assurance of keeping a permanent home anywhere or the government is soulless when surance of keeping a permanent home any-where, for the government is souliess when it comes to regarding the well-being of the women folks of its soldiers. The latter are furnished quarters, to be sure, at this post or that, but they never know when they will be compelled to move on in order to make place for some one clse, and conse-quently they are like the Arab women when their shelks are abroad and have the tens with them.

The Lucky Women of the Sixth.

To the sadness at parting from their hus-ands, therefore, is added the uncertainty of habitation, and so the departure of Squadn 3 is as full of grief and despair as its future career will be full of glory if ever asion offers it to attain that greatest of a soldier's recompenses.

That the wives of the 3d's officers envy the women of the 6th Cavalry goes without saying, as nearly all of them are either in the Philippines or on their way there. It happened that the valiant 6th was ordered to the antipodes just about the time that the order was issued permitting officers' wives to secure transportation on the army transports. The officers' wives availed themselves of this opportunity to rejoin them. The number of applicants for such favor grew so large, however, that the War Department was compelled to rescind the order, and that is the reason the women of the 3d must remain in the United States.

And many of the privates have wives, too, who must be left behind, and who, as far as making arrangements for habitations is concerned, will be a good deal worse off than the others, and so separations are sad for all, and are filled with hardships other than those of the heart.

The material part of the moving of the

for all, and are filled with hardships other than those of the heart.

The material part of the moving of the 3d is the intention of this article, however, rather than the sentimental, for army men and women alike of all degrees wax wroth if they be credited at such a time as this with cherishing the weaker emotions, for bravery is the guerdon of a soldier and a soldier's wife alike.

Carrying Full Equipment.

everything in the way of equipment, from saddles and bridles, guns and ammunition, elething and camp furniture down to the contents of the squadron canteen itself, is being packed and boxed and baled and crated for the long journey to the orient, officers' quarters are being denuded of fur-niture and household goods. Raw recruits are even being received to make up the quota, and the last pay the men will re-ceive in the United States for probably a long time to come was given to them this morning. The first shipment of the horses, which are 480 in number, will be made to-morrow and the remainder Sunday. Tues-day next the human part of the squadron will depart.

it will consist of ten officers and 429 men hand will be armed with carbines and re-volvers, for the 3d rejoices in a fighting band, because, when in Cuba, the bandsmen threw away their instruments and entered into the scrap like other soldiers. The officers are as follows: Major Henry P. Kinschery in command: Carl F. H.

Kingsbury, in command; Capt. F. H. rdie, Troop G; Capt. D. H. Boughton top B; Capt. J. B. McDonald, Troop I Herdie, Troop G; Capt. D. H. Boughton.
Troop B; Capt. J. B. McDonald, Troop I;
First Lieut. A. C. Merillat, Troop A; First Lieut. C. A. Hedekin, Troop D; First Lieut.
F. J. Koester, squadron adjutant; First Lieut. E. L. Phillips, Troop I; Second Lieut.
Robert R. Wallach, Troop I; and Second
Lieut. Godwin Ordway, Troop G.
Lieuts. Wood and Benjamin, recent graduates from West Point, who are now with the other squadrons of the 3d in the Philippines, will join the squadron at Nagasaki, bringing the number of officers to twelve.
The present intention is that the squadron

e present intention is that the squadros sail for Nagasaki, Japan, by the north will sail for Nagasaki, Japan, by the north-ern route, which lies out of the course by Honolulu, and is most direct. August 1, on the transport Meade, which has accommo-dations for forty officers and 1.100 men. A battallon of the 15th U. S. Infantry and a company of United Sixtes engineers will be traveling companions of the 3d. The horses will be carried on the transport Aziec, which will leave San Francisco Au-gust 5, and is expected to reach Nagasaki about the same time as the Meade.

Major Kingsbury is one of the most popular and efficient officers in the army and has a brilliant record for bravery. He was captain of Troop A of the 6th Cavalry, when it was stationed at Fort Myer two three years ago, and was promoted to be where his old regiment, the 6th, was beside him. Since he took command out Myer he has almost metamorphosed the post, and he leaves it in better shap than it has ever been before. His mer too, kept up the record of the cavalry b too, kept up the record of the cavalry by their magnificent horsemraship, and their riding drills will be long remembered by those who were amazed and delighted with them. Major Kingsbury will leave behind him a wife, the daughter of the late Gen.
H. W. Slocum, who was in Congress several years, and three children. Mrs. Kingsbury will probably take a house in Washington.
Major Kingsbury was born in North Carolina and entered West Point in 1868. He M. W. and three years, and three will probably take a house in Major Kingsbury was born in North Car Major Kingsbury was born in 1806. He lina and entered West Point in 1806. He became second fleutenant of the 6th Cavairy in 1871, first fleutenant in 1875 and caprisin in 1885. He was made a major of the tag present year.

Capt. Francis H. Hardle was born in California and appointed to the Military Academy from New Jersey in 1872. H was made second licutenant in 1876, first Leutenant in 1881 and captain in 1891, all commissions being in the 3d Cavalry. Capt.

Hardle is a bachelor. Capt. Daniel H. Boughton is a native of Capt. Daniel H. Bougnton is a native of Minnesota, and was appointed to the Mili-tary Academy from lowa in 1877. He be-came a second fleutenant of the 3d in 1881, first fleutenant in 1885, and a captain in 1886. Captain Boughton had the distinction of being the honor graduate of the Infantry and Cavalry School in 1887. He is married and has one child.

Capt. John B. McDonald is a native of Alabama, whence he was appointed to the Military Academy in 1876. He was made an additional second lieutenant of the 25th Infantry in June, and a second lieutenant in August, 1881, and transferred to the 10th Cavalry, becoming a first lieutenant in 1889 and captain of the 3d in 1898. He was offered the commission of captain and assistant adjutant general of volunteers in May, 1898, but declined, and in the same month became lieutenant colonel of the 1st Alabama Infantry, being honorably mustered out in the following October. Capt. McDonald has a wife and four children.

The Lieutenants.

First Lieutenant Alfred C. Merillat is an Ohloan, and entered West Point in 1886 He was made additional second lieutenant in the 5th Artillery in 1890, second lieuten ant in 1891, and was transferred to the 8th Cavalry in May of that year. He became a native of Indiana and was appointed to West Point from that state in 1883. He became a second lieutenant of the 3d in 1888 and attained his present rank in 1895. He is married and has one child.

First Lieutenant Charles A. Hedekin is a native of Indiana and was appointed to

First Lieutenant Francis J. Koester, the squadron adjutant and the regimental adjutant before the command was separated, is a Pennsylvanian, He entered the Military Academy in 1884 and became second lieutenant of the 3d Cavairy in 1888 and received his present commission in 1895. He is married, but has no children.

First Lieut. Ervin L. Phillips is a New Yorker, and was appointed a second lieutenant of the 3d Cavairy in August, 1891. He is a graduate of the Infantry and Cavairy School of the class of 1895, and received his present commission in 1888. He is married and has two children.

Two Washington Boys.

Two Washington Boys.

The other two officers who will accompany the 3d to China are both Washington boys, and scions of two of the most prominent families in the District. Second Lieut. Robert R. Wallach is the youngest son of the late Richard Wallach, who was mayor the late Richard Wallach, who was mayor of Washington and one of the wealthiest citizens of the District. The family are leaders in the social world at present, and "Bob," as he is chummily termed, is widely popular. He was appointed second lieutenant of the 7th Artillery in July, 1898, and transferred to the 3d Cavalry in March, 1899. He is a magnificent horseman. He is unmarried.

The other Washington boy is Second Lieut. Godwin Ordway. He is the son of the late Gen. Albert Ordway, who was the commander of the District National Guard. He was born in Virginia, and appointed second lieutenant in the 3d Cavalry in April. 1899. Mr. Ordway is married, but has no

1800. Mr. Ordway is married, but has

Of the officers, Major Kingsbury, Capt. Hardie, Capt. Boughton, Lieut. Merillat and Lieut. Koester saw the warmest kind of service in Cuba, and all were recommended for brevet for gallantry in action. Congress, however, failed to confirm the recommendations in favor of these courag-recommendations in favor of these courageous fighters or any other army officers. Lieut. Phillips and Lieut. Wallach saw service in Porto Rico.

A large number of the men of squadron 3 are seasoned veterans, all except the recruits are well drilled and a great many are splendid riders. The recruits, however, are raw material, but will have a month's steady education in the use of arms while on the transport. They will have to learn to ride, however, after they get to China, because no officer or man in the command has an idea that they are going anywhere else.

The departure of the 3d Squadron will leave the 3d Cavalry without a home, habitation, post or immediate official representative in the United States. The exigencies of the situation in the east evidently compelled the war officials to disregard the recent determination to keep at least a secondary of security.

dently compelled the war officials to disregard the recent determination to keep at least a squadron of cavairy or a battalion of infantry or artillery of each regiment in the regular establishment in the United States. The other two squadrons of the 3d are now in the Philippines and embrace regimental headquarters and Troops A, C, D, E, F, K, L and M.

The 3d will be succeeded at Fort Myer by a squadron of the 5th Cavairy, under command of Col. Rafferty of the 5th. It will arrive about August 7 or 8.

Arculars Issued by the Department

The Navy Department has issued circulars defining the characteristics of five battle ships authorized by the last two naval appropriation bills. Bids asked for three sheathed and coppered battle ships and two without sheathing and coppering. The five ships will be identical, with the exception of the batteries. Three will be built with superposed turrets, carrying twelve-inch guns in the lower and eightinch guns in the upper turrets. The remaining two ships will have the twelveinch guns in two ordinary turrets and the eight eight-inch guns in four turrets, arranged quadrilaterally.

The general plans will be ready for ex-

The general plans will be ready for examination September 15 next. Bids will be opened November 15. Bidders are especially invited to submit their own plans under class 2, including their own arrangement of ordnance. The department reserves the right to change within six months after contract the arrangement of battery, turrets and armor. The vessels are to be of 14,600 tons for the unsheathed and 15,000 tons for the sheathed vessels, the speed being 19 knots and the coal capacity 1,900 tons. The time allowed for the completion of the ships is thirty-six months, under heavy penalties, ranging months, under heavy penalties, ranging months, under heavy penalties, ranging from $300 to $600 per day for delay. The ships will have a belt of water-line armor 8 feet wide and from 8 to 11 inches armor 8 feet wide and from 8 to 11 inches thick running clear from bow to stern. The turrets will have a maximum thickness of 11 inches. The ships will have the usual protective deck and cellulose belt, and no woodwork is to be admitted, except where indispensable. The engine horsepower is placed at 19,000, with triple-expansion, four-cylindered, twin-screw engaging, four-cylindered, twin-screw engaging.

boilers. Electricity will furnish the motive power for the turrets and auxiliaries. Representatives of the smaller shipbulld-ing plants are bringing pressure to bear upon the Navy Department to secure the simultaneous advertisement of all of the simultaneous advertisement of all of the fourteen naval vessels authorized to be built in the past two naval appropriation acts. They have represented that such a procedure would tend to insure a more satisfactory distribution of the naval work among the shipbuilders by preventing the big concerns from crowding out the smaller ones, and the government would save at least a million and a half dollars. The department already has fixed upon November 15 next as the date for opening bids for the construction of the five battle ships, and the plans for the other ships can be made ready, according to the smaller builders, by that time if it is decided to undertake to do it.

The rush work on the three colliers and upply ships Alexandria, Arethusia and Saturn, is about completed, and the vessels will be ready to start for China shortly. The Saturn is now ready to begin load-ing coal, and the Arethusia will be ready on the 22d. The guns of the latter ship will be taken off before she sails, and she will the 22d. The guns of the latter ship will be taken off before she salls, and she will carry stores and supplies. The Alexandria will be ready on the 25th and will take coal. Each ship will be under a commissioned officer with a merchant crew.

Lewis Wells of M near 16th street no Lewis Wells of M near 16th street north-west was today arraigned in the Police Court on the charge of carrying a pistol concealed on his person. He asked for a jury trial, which was granted, after which Judge Taylor held him in bonds to await

TALK AND SILENCE

Roles to Be Taken by the Vice Presidential Candidates.

ROOSEVELT TO FIRE THE YOUNG

Stevenson to Consult With Old-Fashioned Democrats.

BRYAN TO BE QUIET

The roles to be taken by the two vice presidential candidates are diametrically opposite. The tail is to be the talking end of the republican ticket; on the democratic ticket it is to be the repository of silence. The tail of the republican ticket is designed to give energy and action; that of the democratic ticket to give steadiness and modify erratic flights.

Stevenson is expected to do a lot of quiet personal work, while Roosevelt is occupied in appealing to the imagination and exciting the energetic blood of adventurous youth. A great many young men have beome voters since '96. In that year the imagination of youth was excited by the flashing meteoric candidate of new political dispensation. Since then Bryan has grown older and stirring events have transpired to thrill the youth militant. An army of young men, with their heads full of heroic ideas, have become voters this year, and Roosevelt is expected to appeal to these, with his San Juan memories and his rough

Stevenson's Task. Stevenson's operations are intended to lie along other lines. It is expected that he will visit and confer personally with a great many leading old-fashioned democrats, who have been dissatisfied with the course of the party since '96, and try to convince them that their present duty is to convince them that their present duty is to come out and work for the party and to exert all their great influence to restore cenfidence in the conservatism of democracy. He will undoubtedly make some speeches during the campaign, but they will be of the old-tashioned democratic sort, and it is calculated that his greatest contribution to the strength of the ticket will be through his personal influence upon individuals, who themselves might exercise great influence for the benefit of the ticket, and through his appeals to that party spirit which Bryan in '96 offended. It is suggested that before the campaign opens he will spend some time in the cest, visiting with some of his old party friends, and that he will do a great deal of campaigning in a semi-special way before the stumpling

Bryan to Be More Quiet.

n a semi-special way before the stumpin

A good deal of doubt is expressed as to the course which Bryan will follow in this campaign, and it is regarded as possible that he will curtail his campaigning to some extent. In the '90 campaigning to make himself known to the country and talked about. He had practically no newspapers, and had it not been for the extraordinary effort he made, performing such feats of oratory as to compel attention he could hardly have kept his name before the public. But for his personal campaigning he would have sunk into obscurity through newspaper neglect. His course during the canvass made it impossible to ignore him. The necessity that then existed no longer exists. Now he is as widely advertised as any man in the country, and it would be impossible to obscure his 'candidacy by economy of printer's ink. There is no danger of any one having to ask who the candidate is, and he can afford to keep as quiet as he wants to. In this campaign he will have active newspaper support of substantial character in the great political centers of the east, the west, the middle west and the south, and where he is not supported he will not be ignored. No one entertains the idea that he will enter upon a campaign of silence, but it is regarded as probable that he will not again undertake some extent. In the '96 campaign he had to the sort of swing around the circle which he made in '96. It is expected that he will be no more active on the stump than shall appear to him to be necessary to attract attention to and emphasize the issues tha are new since '96, and to keep up the en-thuslasm of the party workers, and that he will not take the whole burden of the campaign again upon his own shoulders. campaign again upon his own shoulde It is not expected that he will undertake follow up the campaign of Roosevelt, who will be the central figure on the stump or

Towne to Follow Roosevelt.

To Towne of Minnesota, who did not get the vice presidential nomination at Kansas City, will probably be assigned the task of 'taking care of" Roosevelt. The idea of those who wanted Towne nominated was that he should be pitted against the rough rider on the stump, and this plan will probably be adhered to, though the first feature of it falled. Towns is going to be completely at the disposal of the party for service in the campaign, and, though not a candidate, he will probably perform the services on the stump of which Stevenson would hardly be capable.

A CHRONICLE OF KANSAS CITY.

How the Bourbons, the Dempops and the Tellerites Met Together It was in the year of Independence on hundred and twenty-four, and on the anni versary thereof, when the Conglomerites from throughout the length and breadth of the land. They assembled in the City of Kansas which is on the south bank of the River Missouri, and in the land of the Pukes; The representatives of the three great Tribes of the South and West were gathered in the walls of the City of Kansas to choose from their three Tribes a commander of their hosts to lead them to battle There were the Tribe of Bourbo ouse of Jefferson:

There were the Dempops of the house of There were the Tellerites, dissenters from

There were the Tellerites, dissenters from the family of Republican, whose souls bowed down in worship for the Silver Calf, These were all bearing the yoke of the Silver Mine owner, and were sore burdened, They all clamored for William of Lincoin to come forth as their host leader; And the Dempops and the Tellerites worshiped at the lesser shrine of Charleytowne, whom they desired to sit in the charter with whom they desired to sit in the chariot with William of Lincoln; They loved Charleytowne because of his love for the Silver Calf and because he was glib of tongue;

But the Bourbons loved not Charley-owne, because he came not from their nome in Egypt, and was not of the nouse home in Egypt, and was not of the house of Jefferson; There was much division amount the Bourbons, because they worship d Gold and did not love Silver; They desired not Free Silver, and they dissented loud and long over their Declara-tion of Independence; They yielded up their opposition and bent their necks for the yoke of the Silver Mine They, the Bourbons of the house

They, the Bouroons of the house of Jefferson, the Tellerites, dissenters from the Republicans, and the Dempops of the house of Discontent, all with one acclaim declared for William of Lincoln as their ander;
And the Bourbons of the house of Jeffer-

And the Bourbons of the house of Jeffer-on acclaimed for Adlai, whose surname is tevenson, he of the wide straddle, and hose him to sit in the chariot with William And the Dempops and Tellerites were sore distraught because Charleytowne was not chosen to sit in the charlot with William of Lincoln, and they wept and tore their hair in anger;

They blasphemed Adlai and swore cruel

Teller wept;
And there came into the fold of the Bourbons one Webster, surnamed Davis, a deserter from the house of McKinley;
Davis is a Puke to the manner born;
He possessed a quaver which he put into his voice when he desired to make men weep; his tongue was of German Silver, and he adulated much and was wont to sicken his hearers with fawning flattery;
Davis then and there apostated and the Bourbons baptized him with cheers; and while making loud acclaim of his conversion, the wicked, who assembled in the gallery, mocked him, crying unto him, "Why shot you your hat?" but he hearkened not unto them;

shot you your hat? Dut he had not them;
The Bourbons were overjoyed at his apostacy, and bade him welcome;
And they separated, each going into his own land, and sorrow bore heavy on the Tellerites and the Dempops, and they were discontented;
And the end is not yet come to pass.
J. H. L. E.

AMERICAN CLOVER SEED.

Chief Clerk Geddes Says That It is Highly Praised Abroad. Consul Schuman of Mainz recently in-formed the State Department that a newspaper of that city warns the farmers against buying American clover seed, giving as reason that it contains so many weed seeds as to utterly ruin the fields planted therewith besides yielding only a very poor crop. A copy of the report was sent to the United States Department of Agriculture and elicited the following reply from Mr. Andrew

Geddes, chief clerk:

"The charge that American clover seed is impure is very rarely made by European dealers or experiment-station workers of repute. On the contrary, the fact that American clover seed is very pure and of excellent germinating quality has been recognized even by those who oppose its use by European farmers. Among the seed-control workers in Europe, Nobbe, Eldam and Kirchner have given testimony to the high purity of the American clover seed, although the two latter have been hostile to the American seed.

and Kirchner have given testimony to the high purity of the American clover seed, although the two latter have been hostile to the American seed.

"Very little European clover seed finds its way to America, and it is thus impossible to make a definite statement of its purity as the result of our own investigations. However, the Department of Agriculture secured this spring twenty samples of European clover seed for experimental purposes. The average purity of these was 83.49 per cent. The average purity of 150 samples of American clover seed of all grades sold on the American market during the past winter was 95.5 per cent.

"The charge that the product from the European seed is a more serious one, in asmuch as it is made by the greater number of workers in the seed-control stations. There are, however, notable exceptions. Dr. Nobbe of Tharand has always maintained that the American clover was of good quality; and in a recent issue of the Deutsche Landwirtschaftliche Presse, Dr. Kirchner, who had previously maintained that American clover was inferior, gave the results of tests that clearly shows the American product to be better than the European. The explanation of these conflicting reports is doubtless that the American seeds used in these tests did not all come from the same part of the United States and were of varying quality.

"Experiments are now being carried on under the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture to determine the relative value in the United States of clover seed of European and of American origin, and these will probably be followed by extensive tests to determine the value of seeds produced in different sections of the United States."

Work Ordered.

prints, to be $500; provided, that said plans meet with the approval of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and the contract for the building and heating apparatus is let within the amount available for the erection of said building.

That Henry Simpson, architect, is hereby

That Henry Simpson, architect, is hereby appointed to assist the inspector of buildings in the preparation of plans and specifications for the erection of an engine house at Brookland, D. C., the compensation for plans and specifications, including the necessary tracings and blue prints, to be $500; provided, that said plans meet the approval of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and the contract for the building is let within the amount available for the erection of said building.

That W. C. Peter, architect, is hereby appointed to assist the inspector of buildings

That W. C. Peter, architect, is hereby appointed to assist the inspector of buildings in the preparation of plans and specifications for the erection of a new four-room school building for the Industrial Home school; the compensation for plans and specifications, including the necessary tracings and blue prints, to be $500; provided, that said plans meet the approval of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and the contract for the building and heating apparatus is let within the amount available for the erection of said building. That sheet asphalt payement be substituted. That sheet asphalt payement be subsu-

That sheet asphalt pavement be substituted for granite block pavement at the intersection of the driveway leading from the public grounds at 15t. and B streets northwest, at an estimated cost of $3,100, and at the driveway crossing between the Monument grounds and the President's grounds, on north B street, midway between 15th and 17th streets west, at an estimated cost of $1,800, both chargeable to the appropriation for repairs to streets, 1901.

1901. That receiving basins be constructed at the following localities, chargeable to the appropriation for main and pipe sewers, 1901; total estimated cost, $525: Four on the north side of D street northeast between 9th and 13th streets, one on west side of 10th street near D northeast, one on the east side of 12th street near D street northeast and one on the east side of 13th street near D street northeast.

That all proposals received July 7, 1900, for the construction of two gate houses at the Brightwood reservoir are hereby rejected.

That 124 feet of 6-inch water main be laid in Princeton street west from She avenue, at an estimated cost of $99.20. That 305 feet of 6-inch water main is laid in Woodley street from present dead end, opposite lot 18, block 4, Fairview Heights, extending westerly to Idaho avenue, thence northerly to serve lot 4, block 7, Fairview Heights.

That 397 feet of 6-inch water main be laid in the north side of South Carolina avenue between 11th and 12th streets southeast, at an estimated cost of $318.75.

William Gill and Harry Codrick, who had visited friends in Prince George's county, got in trouble yesterday afternoon while reurning home. When they reached Minnesota avenue, Twining City, they appeared to have been drinking, and Policeman Wannell arrested them. "They came to my house," said Mr. Emanuel Franklin, "broke down a screen door and damaged the vines about the door."

"We stopped in front of this man's house to rest," said one of the boys, "and a girl came out and took my hat. I went in and got it, and then she came out and got my friend's hat. When he went to get it he accidentally broke the vines, and I tied them up for him."

The other boy made a similar statement.

GOSSIP FROM GOTHAM

New York Democrats Need Money for the Campaign.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

Traveling Men's Sound Money League for McKinley Again.

SOCIETY TAKES AN OUTING

NEW YORK, July 19, 1900. Now that the democrats have appointed their executive committee for the state; now that Hill has declared for Albany for the state convention and Croker for Saratoga, the band is ready to play. On the side, however, the important question for the executive committee to face now is where the money is to come from. The make-up of the state ticket and the issues in the campaign are all questions subordinated to this. Even Chairman Mc-Guire, who is an optimist and a hustler, admits plaintively that money is not easy to get. He had a long talk with Hill and Croker about this subject. Tammany has promised, so it is declared, to do its share. Mayor McGuire looks at things in a philo sophical light. He says that he doesn't think that much money need be sent up the state. He declared that Syracuse, Albany and Buffalo could raise about as much as was needed from the local organizations and that Tammany's money should be used here in the city to help roll up a big majority. There is more or less talk about candidates, but this has not taken definite shape. Croker, if he so desires, by his combination with Kings, Erie and Rensselaer, can control the nomination and force it. at is not expected that he will do this, however, as it is known to politicians that if Hill and his friends are ridden over rough shod in this way they will retailate by making the defeat of the ticket more crushing. On the other hand, if proper deference is paid to the wishes of Hill and his given it, then, it is asserted by sanguine democrats, the party may be harmonlous this fall.

Republican State Convention. state. He declared that Syracuse, Albany

Republican State Convention.

The republican state convention to nominate candidates for governor and other state officers will be held in Saratoga on Tuesday, September 11. According to the gossip around state headquarters, B. B. Odell is the first choice of almost every re-Odell is the first choice of almost every republican in the state, and if he should enter the race no other name would be presented to the convention. Mr. Odell has said again and again that he is not a candidate and will not permit his name to go before the convention. His friends say that he is sincere in this statement and that he would rather remain at the head of the state committee than be governor.

At the same time they say that a situation may arise in which there will be a demand for the nomination of Mr. Odell that will be too strong for any man to resist. It is conceded by every republican politician from Montauk to Suspension bridge that the party could nominate a stronger candidate.

The republican leaders was be served.

Work Ordered.

The following orders have been issued by the District Commissioners;
That Dennis Palmer be appointed foreman in the sewer division, engineer department, at $3$ per day, vice Wm. Smith, deceased.

That Messrs. A. B. Mullett & Co., architects, are hereby appointed to assist the inspector of buildings in the preparation of plans and specifications for the erection of a police station on Whitney avenue; the compensation for plans and specifications, including the necessary tracings and blue prints, to be $500; provided, that said phase is a stronger candidate.

The republican leaders who have not been very friendly with the organization for a year or more are trying to arrange a comnimation of Timothy L. Woodruff for governor. The Brooklyn leaders are out for Woodruff to a man, and according to the reports current at headquarters they are trying to form a combination for Woodruff for Woodruff to a man, and according to the reports current at headquarters they are trying to arrange a comnimation of Timothy L. Woodruff for Woodruff to a man, and according to the reports current at headquarters they are trying to arrange a comnimation of Timothy L. Woodruff for Woodruff to a man, and according to the reports current at headquarters they are trying to arrange a comnimation of Timothy L. Woodruff for Woodruff to a man, and according to the reports current at headquarters they are trying to arrange a comnimation of Timothy L. Woodruff for Woodruff to a man, and according to the reports current at headquarters they are trying to arrange a comnimation of Timothy L. Woodruff for Woodruff to a man, and according to the reports current at headquarters they are trying to arrange a comnimation of Timothy L. Woodruff for Woodruff to a man, and according to the reports current at headquarters they are trying to arrange a comnimation of Timothy L. Woodruff for Woodruff to a man, and according to the reports current at headquarters they are trying to arrange a comnimation of Timothy L. Woodruff for Woodruff to a man, sidered that a strong four-cornered combination between Payn, Aldridge, Black an the Brooklyn leaders would give Woodrul a big lead in the convention, if there should be four or five other candidates in the field.

There are a good many republicans in the state who believe that Justice William E. Werner of Rochester would make a strong candidate for governor, and that he would bring to the support of the state and national ticket thousands of independent votes. Justice Werner is in no sense a candidate, and it is said that he does not want the nomination, but would yield to a unanimous demand of the party. He has twelve years of his term to serve, and is now a member of the appellate division by designation of the governor. designation of the governor.

Traveling Men's League for McKinley. The Commercial Travelers' Sound Money League of the United States is preparing o make a vigorous fight for McKinley and Roosevelt. The noon-day meetings begun with so much success in 1896, will again be a feature of the league's campaign work. Governor Roosevelt has indorsed the move ment. Mr. H. W. Dearborn, president of the organization, outlines the plans of the league in the coming campaign as follows: "We are to conduct our campaign along the same lines as in 1896. I believe tha we are to conduct our campaign along the same lines as in 1896. I believe that we are better prepared to reach the commercial traveler, not only of this state, but of the United States, than we were in the last contest. Of course, we shall hold our noon-day meeting in the business district, Ex-Mayor Charles F. Warwick of Philadelphia, who is a member of our advisory board, and one of the most forcible speakers of the country, will address our meeting. Colonel Albert A. Pope of Boston, Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, former Mayor William L. Strong, Governor Roosevelt and Seth Low of Columbia University and many other prominent men will also Mayor William L. Strong, Governor Roosevelt and Seth Low of Columbia University and many other prominent men will also speak. No doubt General Harrison will speak, too. It will be remembered that in the campaign of 1896 many of the leading speakers who flocked to our support were sound money democrats, such as ex-Governor Waller of Connecticut and James C.
Carter. I tried then to bring as many democrats into our ranks as possible. Many of its most industrious workers at that time were democrats, and they are still with us. I do not know of a single person taking an active part in the organization in 1896 who has lost faith in Mr. McKinley.
At that time I tried to become acquainted with the membership of the organization.
Since then our secretary, Mr. B. Russell Throckmorton, has been in communication with our members, both republicans and democrats, and they are for McKinley to a man. The dry goods organization, of which Colonel William L. Strong is president, will be a poweful factor in the campaign.
They will also hold noon-day meetings as they did in 1898. I do not care to commence will also hold noon-day meetings did in 1896. I do not care to comm on any opposition organizations which ma exist. I have not met any of the officer of the Anti-Trust League. I will say, how exist. I have not met any of the officers of the Anti-Trust League. I will say, however, that so far as my knowledge goes, its membership does not consist of a single man who worked with the Commercial Travelers' Sound Money League in 1896."

Commerce With China Paralyzed. Because of the alarming condition known to exist in the northern provinces of China commerce with that section of the country is almost paralyzed. Exports from Hone Kong are still kept up, and merchants expect considerable shipments from here dur-ing the next two months, regardless of the rebellion, but already trade has ceased to flow in the opposite direction. Fu'l con-firmation of the conditions recommends firmation of the conditions recently reported by the Hong Kong and Shanghai banking them up for him."

The other boy made a similar statement.

Judge Scott fined them $10 or thirty days corporation has been received by other Chinese trading firms. A. M. Townsend. at the head of the local branch of the Hong

"THE 'SALT' OF SALTS."

Enjoy the Warm Weather.

It can be enjoyed even in the heated city. Cool make life enjoyable even on the hottest days. The escapes the oppressive mugginess of the warm weather. Abbey's Salt is made from the salts ex-tracted from the juices of fresh fruits and may be taken at any time. It makes a refreshing beverage and an invigorating, beaith-giving tonic. and an invigorating, heatit-giving tonic.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt

Abbey's Salt is a preventive of and cure for Sleeplessness, Loss of Appetite, Billiousness, Headache, Constipation, Indigestion and similar complaints. It purifies the blood and clears the complexion. Sold by most druggists, or sent by mail.

25c., 50c. and $1 per bottle.

THE ABBEY EFFERVESCENT SALT CO., 9-15 MURRAY ST., N. Y.

Boorlet free on request.

Kong and Shanghai banking corporation, asks to be excused from an interview. Mr. Thomas to do in those parts. He should do well with Kansas City.

The only interest in the National League race is now centered in the struggle for relatives are in great gloom in consequence of the reported general massacre in Pekin. From another source it was learned that orters from China for goods have not been can received for nearly a fortnight, while many orders previously received have been can profers previously received have been can for fard luck to not been and are running easily. It would take a terrible running easily. It would take a terrible running easily. It would take a terrible running easily. The only interest in the National League race is now centered in the struggle for second place. It is possible, of course, for the Brooklyns to lose the championship, but it is highly improbable. They have orders previously received have been can-

"Even should the trouble in China cease "Even should the trouble in China cease at once," said a gentleman connected with a prominent shipping concern, "the harm that has already been done will kill business for nearly a year. The depredators will be punished and China will then be thrown open to western influence and western trade. Mark what I teil you. Inside of five years our trade with China will be quadrupled. Last year the United States sent to that country about $10,109,000 worth of merchandise, mostly cotton goods and machinery. This year there will be a heavy falling off. Then there will be a jump in trade that will be felt all over the country. We will found practically a new market."

The Social Situation. There are no longer any fashionable aspects to local society. It is proper to avoid the city. Even the Wall street contingent that spends the week ends at Newport, South Hampton and Lennox avoids the uptown regions during the midweeks the uptown regions during the midweeks when business interests demand its presence in this city. The seaside hotels get Wall street's patronage from Tuesday to Friday. The Newport commuting force is organized for the season. The mode of life of this coterie of New York business men who are identified with Newport's fashionable life is an interesting feature of New York's summer customs. The force is nearly 100 strong, and the men who form it represent nearly half of the financial strength of the Wall street region of the city. These wealthy men have reduced the problem of combining business with pleasure in summer to a science. They secure are in summer to a science. They secure rooms at a seashore hotel within commuting # distance of the city for the season and use them three or four days during the week. Two of the remaining nights are spent on Long Island sound and the remaining ones in Newport.

The battle between the east and west opens in earnest today, all the western clubs being scheduled for games. Cincinnati made a bad start for the western contingent yesterday in the play off of a ostponed game. Frank Forman, the well-known ex-league twirler, has been doing exceptionally well with Buffalo. He was recently released by Springfield of the Eastern League for poor work. Wednesday Frank pitched the Bisons into their eleventh straight victory, Captain Dickey Padden of the Chicagos lost a diamond worth $100 and $15 in money on the train to Buffalo from Hamilton, Ohio, Tuesday night.

Bradley will lead the Chicagos with the Bradley will lead the Chicagos with the stick if he keeps up his gait. Including Monday's game, his average is now .327. He is, therefore, away the hardest-litting third baseman in the National League, outside of McGraw.

As the result of the suspension of Shortstop Elberfeld by President Ban Johnson of the American League, the Detroit base ball team and franchise are for sale. President Research Manuscra Stallies and determined the state of the sale of the sale. of the American League, the Detroit base ball team and franchise are for sale. President Burns and Manager Stallings declared this Wednesday. Some time ago Mr. Burns expressed the belief that Detroit was being discriminated against, and now he feels satisfied that he is not welcome in the American League. Elberfeld was accused of taking part in a row with Umpire Contillion last week.

There is evidently something radically wrong with the Phillies. They could not possibly play such erratic ball if things were as they should be. Messrs. Reach and Rogers, it seems, owe it to the loyal support of the game in this city to make a thorough investigation, and if they find anything wrong, straighten out matters at once.—Philadelphia Ledger.

nce.—Philadelphia Ledger, Catcher Fred Buelow is giving the St. Louis management some trouble by refus-ing to abide by its edict to report to the Denver team of the Western League. What wants is a chance to sign with another the major league teams. Instead of mplying with orders he went to his home he wants is a chance to sign with another of the major league teams. Instead of complying with orders he went to his home in Detroit.

Pittsburg begins a series of three games at Philadelphia this afternoon. So far as the Phillies are concerned this will be one of the most important series of the season. The Pittsburgers have got a hold on second place, and they will very naturally want to tighten it at the expense of the Quakers. If the Phillies expect to cut any figure at all during the rest of the season they will have to take on an immediate brace. They will have to make up their lest ground at home, or not at all.

Max Fleischmann has corralled an excellent left-handed pitcher in young White, who plays under the name of Harris. The youngster's record yesterday, striking out twelve men in seven innings, shows that he has a most peculiar sharp curve, which fools the batsmen. He also displayed good fools the batsmen. He also displayed good speed and control. White is a young fel-low, and he will improve steadily. He ought to be in fast company in a year or so.— Cincinnati Enquirer. Can this be White of the Georgetown team? of the Georgetown team?

"Just how that man Taylor of Chicago wins is a mystery. He does not have extraordinary speed, his curves do not hop or wiggle and his control is just about as good as the average. Apparently he is another Ad Gumbert in the pitching line.

ALLEGREE, KY.

"Your Salt works like a charm. It seems to be just what has always been wanting, cooling and refreshing and not nameating in any particular. I shall never be without it in my office."
W. C. DULMAGE, M.D.

"I can truly say that Abbey's Sait is the best preparation of the kind I have ever used and shall continue to use it in my practice." DR. ERNEST K. PARKER.

1570 ASBURY AVENUE, EVANSTON, ILL., January 5, 1900. "Your Salt is a very Superior article. Am well pleased with it. Bottle pleased with waters no comparison."
DR. WM. B. MANN.

running easily. It would take a terrible run of hard luck to pull them down. They are particularly strong in the pitching department, and have a number of capable men to take the biace of those who may be injured. With the season about half over six of the clubs appear to have a chance for second place. There was considerable shifting in the percentage table during the last four weeks' play, and the clubs are now so closely bunched that a material shift may be looked for in the next two weeks.

"Stallings and Elberfeid are egging on the crowds there in Detroit," said Loftus. "It's something awful, from all I hear. Those people are worse than they used to be in Baltimore-simply crazy rooting for their team."

"And Baltimore was a fright," says Mc-Cormick. "Went after a ball in Baltimore one day—tried to go through a little gate. So help me, Jim Hart, two policemen, two Baltimore coppers, grabbed me, threw me back through the fence, and yelled to the batter: Run, Joe, run! We'll see he never gets it!" On the square, I was scared to death to follow a ball after that in Baltimore."—Chicago Tribune.

THE WASHINGTON STATUE. Its Unveiling in Paris Was an Inter-

The unveiling of the equestrian statue of Washington in Paris on the Fourth of July was marked by a most interesting ceremony. The successful completion of the labors of the Washington Statue Association is a matter of congratulation to its members all over this country. The association was represented at the unveiling by Mrs. John P. Jones, wife of the senator from Nevada, and Mrs. William Reed of Baltimore, representing the Colonial Dames, Mrs. Lothrop and daughter of the Children

Base Ball Notes.

Yesterday's attendance at Brooklyn, 1,000.
Ex-Senator Barry did all the batting for Boston yesterday.

The New Yorks have made a pretty good record since George Davis took hold of the reins. Four victories out of five games played is going pretty fast for tallenders.

The battle between the east and west Daniel Manning up to the statue, and the two ladies loosened the cords of the cover-ing while the band played "Hail to the Chief." Col. Chaille Long, after the for-Chief. Col. Challie Long, after the for-mal acceptance of the statue by M. Del-casse, minister of foreign affairs, delivered an address, in which he sketched most elo-quently the principal incidents of Wash-ington's career and services to his coun-

Mrs. Stephen J. Field, who is the presiaris, Stephen J. Field, who is the presi-lent of the Washington Statue Associa-tion, and who has worked so faithfully toward the project, was not able, owing to her health, to go abroad to be present at he unveiling ceremony, as she anticipated loing early in the spring. Associated with her on the committee of vice presidents are Mrs. McKinley and prominent women rep-resenting every section of the United

DEMANDS PROOF OF GUILT.

States.

Opinion of Judge Lacombe in Neely Extradition Case. Judge Lacombe of the United States circuit court in New York city, in explana-don of his position regarding the Neely extradition proceedings, said: "In the entire sequence of events do to the date of the ratification of the treaty of Paris, counsel for the prisoner finds nothing to criticise as obnoxious to the federal Constitution. On the day that treaty was signed we were indisputably in military occupation of the island; why under the Constitution that occupation, legitimately entered upon, may not continue to secure the lives and property of American citizens within that territory until the political branch of the government shall be satisfied that its further to conceive, and no authority cited in the brief sustains any such proposition.

"The mere fact that the individual who has committed a crime in a foreign country is himself a citizen of the United States does not prevent the United States from returning him to the country against whose laws he has offended.

It will be noted that the act of June 6, 1800, is most careful to safeguard the party accused against unsubstantial charges of crime. It provides that before the accused is returned there shall be an inquiry before a judge of a federal court, who shall hold such person on evidence establishing probable cause that he is guilty of the offense charged; if the evidence falls to establish probable cause the accused shall not be returned.

"There must be laid before the court sworn statements as to facts from which the judge may reach conclusion. The objection that the act of June 6, 1900, is unconstitutional is unsound.

"Witnesses need not be brought from Cuba to testify here, but their sworn statements can certainly be obtained, so that the court's conclusion may be based upon competent proofs of facts within the knowledge of the witnesses."

The Cuban Postal Frauds The report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow upon the postai frauds in Cuba has been submitted to the Fost-master General. As heretofore states The Star, the report is in two parts, relates to the investigation, while the o is devoted to the reorganization plan. reports will not be given to the public several days. Will Conl at New London.

The North Atlantic squadron will coal at New London, thus testing the new c a ing

DR. W. H. WRIGHT, Medical Officer of Health London, England: "I strongly advocate keeping the system cool and the blood pure, and I knew of no better remedy than your Abbey's Sait. I take it every meraling before my bath, and I can assure you as a fact that I should miss it more than my breakfast. Your Abbey's Sait is invigorating, cleans the tongue and mouth and Suparts a feeling of freshness an feeling of freshness and cherry to the entire system. I am constantly prescribing it."

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.,